SECRETARY OF EDUCATION

MICHELLE LUJAN GRISHAM
GOVERNOR

LIST OF DISQUALIFYING CONVICTIONS

I. General

A. The following criminal convictions shall constitute grounds for denial of an application for licensure issued by the Public Education Department (PED) and further shall constitute grounds to suspend or revoke licensure issued by the Public Education Department.

B. Any criminal conviction, including those listed herein, which results in a sentence of a petty misdemeanor, or a misdemeanor, may constitute grounds for denial of an application for licensure issued by the PED and further may constitute grounds to suspend or revoke licensure issued by the Public Education Department except as otherwise provided for in law.

C. PED may deny, suspend, or revoke an educator license on the sole basis of a criminal conviction, unless otherwise provided in law.

D. PED may deny, suspend, or revoke an educator license on the sole basis of a criminal conviction, whether or not such conviction is included on this list, where the crime occurred at, within, or on school grounds, regardless of whether the school grounds are public or private, whether the crime concerned children or students, or where the subject or victim of said crime was an educator, or school employee.

E. PED may continue to consider any criminal conviction, whether or not such conviction is included on this list, as evidence to show a licensed educator, or applicant, violated the Public School Code, Chapter 22 NMSA 1978, The School Personnel Act, Chapter 22, Article 10A NMSA 1978; or the Public Education Department Act, Chapter 9, Article 24 NMSA 1978.

II. Disqualifying State Crimes

A. All disqualifying criminal offenses include detailed citations to provisions of the New Mexico Statute Annotated.

B. In the event of renumbering or amendment of such statutory provisions, convictions of the renumbered or amended provisions, shall continue to constitute grounds for denial of an application by the PED if the definition of the acts constituting such crimes remain substantially similar.

C. A conviction of an offense in a court of another state shall be deemed a conviction of the offense in New Mexico with the same elements. If there is no offense in New Mexico with the same elements, the conviction shall be deemed a conviction of the most serious offense in New Mexico that is established by the elements of the offense.
